Encountering Jesus

Do you know
the Gift of God?

John 4:4-14

Give Me a drink.

An illustration depicting the biblical story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well. Jesus, on the right, is seated on a rock, wearing a brown robe and sandals, with his right hand raised in a gesture of conversation. The Samaritan woman, on the left, is standing and leaning over a large, circular stone well. She is wearing a dark blue or black headscarf and a long, flowing brown robe. She holds a large, reddish-brown earthenware jar in her hands, positioned over the well. A rope is visible hanging down into the well. The background features a warm, orange-hued sky, suggesting a sunset or sunrise, with silhouettes of distant buildings and rolling hills. The overall style is a flat, modern illustration with a limited color palette of browns, oranges, and blues.

You are a Jew, how can You ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?

If you knew
the gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you
living water.

Sir, you have nothing to draw water with and the well is deep. Where will You get this living water?

An illustration depicting the biblical story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well. Jesus, on the right, is shown with long hair and a beard, wearing a brown robe, sitting on a rock. The Samaritan woman, on the left, is wearing a blue headscarf and a long blue robe, standing and holding a brown water jar. They are positioned next to a stone well with a rope hanging down. The background features a warm, orange-toned landscape with rolling hills and a distant city skyline under a sunset sky. Two speech bubbles are present: one from Jesus and one from the woman.

Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. But whoever drinks the water I give will never thirst.

Indeed, the water I give will become in them a fount of water springing up to eternal life.

An illustration of the Parable of the Good Samaritan. A Samaritan woman in a blue robe and headscarf is drawing water from a stone well using a brown jug. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a blue robe, sits on a rock to the right, gesturing towards her. A speech bubble from Jesus contains the text. The background shows a hazy landscape with a distant city under a warm, orange sky.

Sir, give me this water so that I will not get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water.

A stylized illustration in a flat, paper-cut style. On the left, a yellow gift box with a ribbon is partially visible. A yellow hand holds a yellow spoon, pouring a light blue liquid into a yellow bowl. Another yellow hand is visible on the right, reaching towards the bowl. The background is a solid light blue.

1. Understand the gift

WHAT IS THE GIFT OF GOD?

If you knew
the gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you
would have asked Him, and He
would have given you
living water.

WHAT IS THE GIFT OF GOD?

If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. Whoever believes (trusts) in Me, 'Streams of living water will flow from within him.'

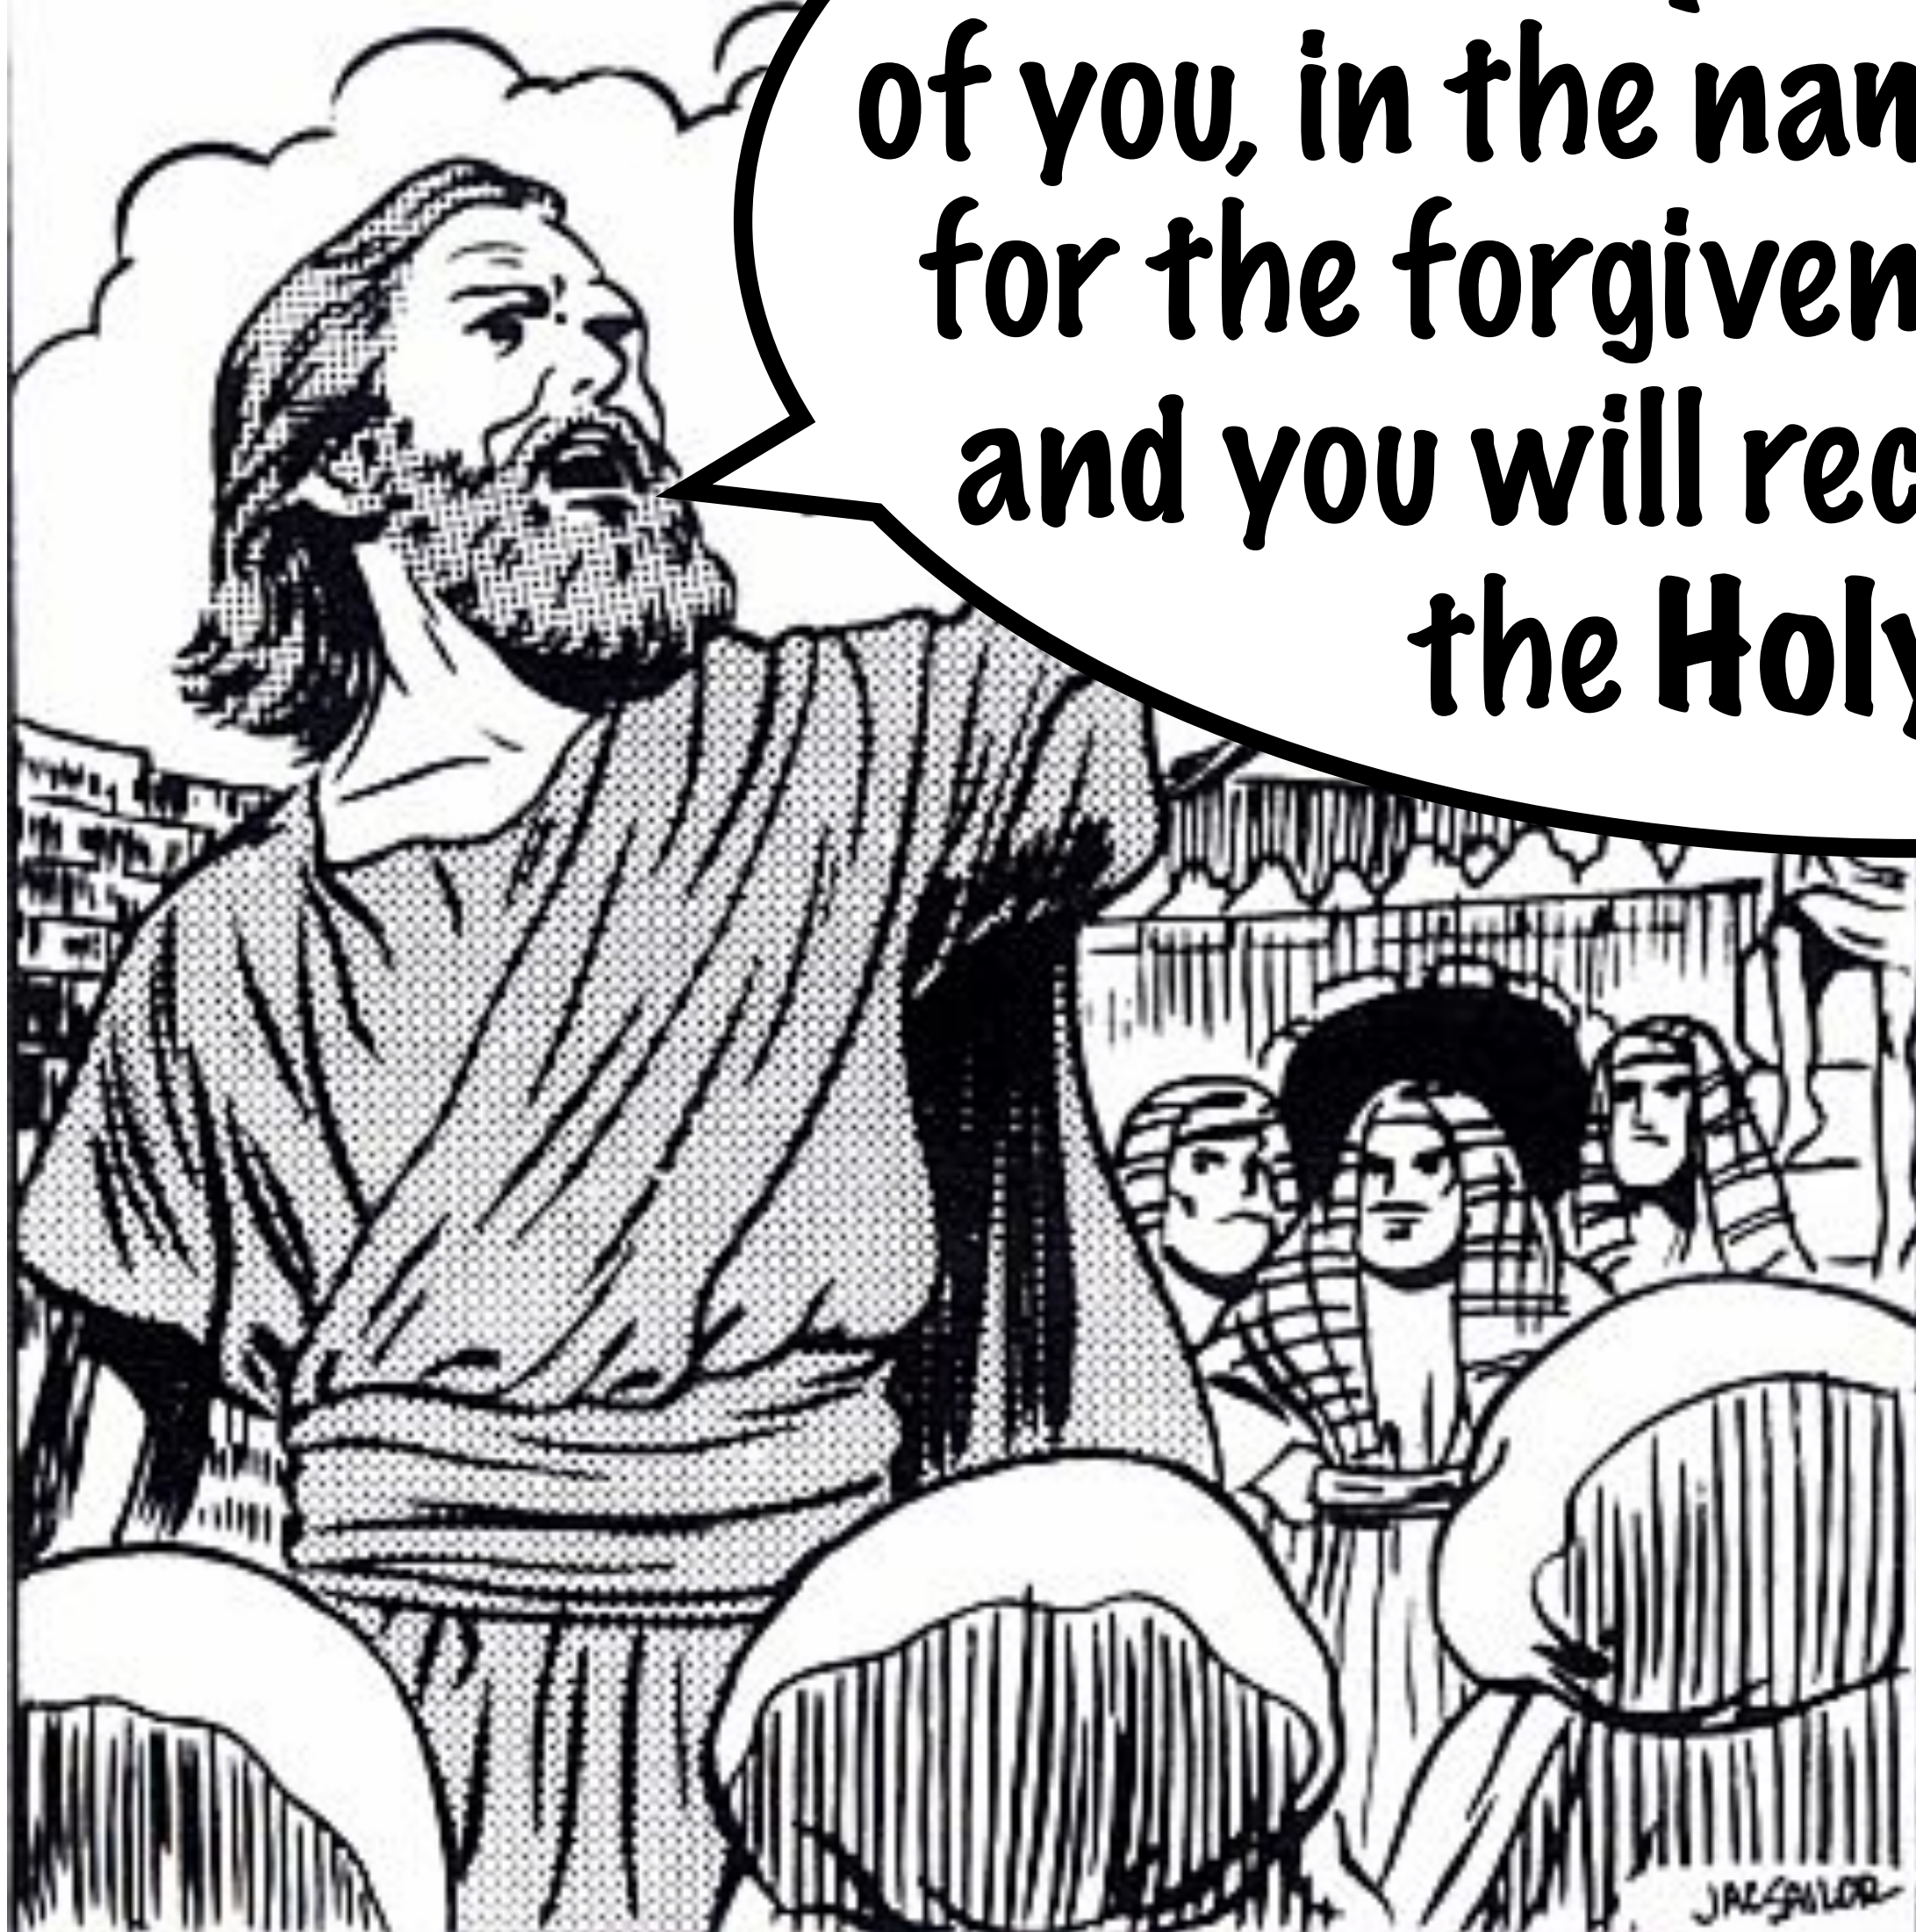

John 7:37-39

If you knew the gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.

Jesus was speaking about the [Holy] Spirit, whom those who believed (trusted) in Him were later to receive.

Acts 2:38

Repent
and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

HOW DO WE RECEIVE THIS GIFT OF GOD?
